

Please do not change the Indiana No Call Law. Our telephone calls are now a pleasure as we know it is family or friends when we answer a telephone call.

We never receive a telephone call and no one is on there to reply as before when were not on the list.

A revision of the present law or a return to the telemarketing calls as before will not increase anyones business from this household

I can guarantee.

Best regards; Bobby Jetmore